Washington, May 2.—Senator Mitchell today received the following message from J. B. Montgomery, a member of the Oregon legislature: "Oregon endorses the McKinley bill and Herman, Republican, in congress by 8,000 majority. The legislature is Republican by two to one."

James Lotam, chairman of the Republican senate central committee, telegraphs as follows: "The vote for governor is very close. Am in hopes that Thompson will pull through."

AFTER CARLISLE'S SHOES. A Lively Centest Going on for the Dem-

est. The committee met at noon today at the Kentucky Democratic club headquarters to fix a date and place for the congressional convention. There are eight countries in the district and a total of ninety-seven delegates, as follows: Kenton county 22, Campbell 21, Boone 11, Pendleton 10, Carroll 8, Grant 8, Trimble 6 and Gallatin 4. The race has really narrowed down to Colonel Berry, mayor of Newport; Judge O'Hara and Theo. Hallum, of Covington. Others mentioned in the race are Dickerson and De Jarnett, of Grant, and Colonel-Gaunt, of Carroll, but neither of the latter is recognized in the stronger counties as possessing much strength, the three first named being looked upon as the glants in sessing much scrength, the glants in named being looked upon as the glants in

It is generally edmitted that the Kenton delegation will go to the convention units structed, and, if such be the order, and Campbell county should send a solid dein-gation for Colonel Berry, the latter would adoubtedly have tremendous strength in the convention, as he has a high following in Kenton county, Judge O'Hara is mak-ing a personal canyass of the district. Theodore Hallum's brother Robert, who has been following the judge, returned to Covington this morning and claims it was an easy mate to win the masses over for Theodore. The exvertor has try lained June The governor has proclaimed Jun-El as the date for the special election to elect Mr. Carlisle's successor. The district is Democratic by about 5,000

The district is Democratic by about 5,000 majority. The nominee of that party has a walk-over. Carlisle has expressed no preferences, although it is believed that his personal choice is Thoulore Hallum. Should the contest grow very warm, some new man or, perbaps, Colonel Gauge, of Carroll county, who is district prosecuting attoney, may capture the prize. Mayor Berry, of Newport, besides a large personal following, has alonty of money, with following, has plenty of money, with which he is very libered. TARSNEY RENOMINATED. TARSNEY RENOMINATED.

KANSAS CITT, Mo., June 3.—A special from Holden, Mo., says: Owing to the late arrival of many of the delegates the Democratic congressional convention did not come to order till 11:36 o'clock. Before the convention was called to order it was understood that Dr. J. J. Fulkerson, of Higginsville, would be chosen chairman. So far there are no candidates in the field against Congressman Tursney who will probably succeed himself.

The place where the convention was held was tastily draped with flowers and bunting. The convention was called to order by G. F. Bailingall, chairman of the congressional committee, who delivered a brief speech. Mr. Fulkerson was then thosen temporary charman and Charles Anderson, of Johnson county, temporary secretary. Committees on credentials. perfecting an organization and resolutions were then named, after which the convention adjourned for two hours.

Mr. Tarsney was unanimously nominated, no other candidate being placed before the convention.

TO SUCCEED BAYNE Physician A. Stone, ex-United States district at-torney, was today nominated for congress in the Twenty second district. Colonel Bayne, the present congressman, refused the nomination and addressed the dele-cates, with drawing in favor of Col Stone. Two-thirds of the delegates, were in favor

SUGAR SCHEDULE LAID OVER.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Senators Allison, Aldrich, Hiscock and Jones, of the subcommittee of Republicans of the senate finance committee, today continued the consideration of the tariff bill. The items in the wood schedule were examined and passed and then the sugar schedule was laid over for the present, it being deemed best to await the return of Senators Morrill and Sherman before taking up a subject of such importance.

The sub-committee also passed over without action the tobacco and agricultarial schedules which with sugar occupy twenty pages of the ledger. A start was made on the cotton schedule, but it was late before that was taken up and not much

Among the club's founders were George H. Warren, W. Starr Miller and Frank Lawrence. The first president was Mr. Lawrence.

Every spring since the foundation of the club it has taken two or three drives to Jerome park. On these occasions the carts and horses were decorated with the club's colors-red and white. The whins were tied with red and yellow ribbons, and the eleven young women and the chaperon who accompanied the members carried bouquets of red and yellow flowers. Luncheon was always eaten at Jerome park. All the lay members must have approved T-carts on these drives. The president, how-

Acuteness of Scent of the Australian. It is well known that among the lower animals the senses of hearing and smell are developed to an astonishing degree. The pointer that smells a beyy of quail two or three hundred yards away and the deer that scents a human being half a mile or more, or hears the first crack of a twig two or three hundred yards off, are cases in Man, in his progress from lower to higher tages of culture, has had less and less occasion to use these two faculties, and so they have become less and less acute. Though hearing and scent are not devel-oped among the lower races of man to an extent comparable with the animals, they are nevertheless remarkably acute.

Thus Lumboltz while in Queensland noticed that, in passing along, the natives frequently took a handful of dirt out of a crevice in the rock or a cleft in a tree, and smelled of it to discover if any animal had passed over it. He also observed that when igging out mice from their holes they frequently smelled of a handful of the earth to see if the animal was at home.

Though the peculiar odor of these ani-mals was familiar to the naturalist, he was never able to discover it in the ground, and this fact shows how superior to his own olfactory powers were noses of the natives. - Youth's Companion.

RILEYS WELL WON VICTORY.

The Other Five Entries Couldn't Touch Him-How Castaway II Carried Off the Big Eastern Prize to the Dismay of the Talent-A Rank Outsider Got There.

The Kentucky Derby and the Brooklyn Handicap are two of the most popular and important events of the spring racing. In these are brought together the cream of blooded stock. Last year the Kentucky Derby was won by Spokane, who defeated Proctor Knott, the idol of the Kentuckians. This year it was captured by Riley, not by a fluke, but because he was the best horse started. None of the other five could touch him, and it is doubtful if Bill Letcher, who alone proved to be in the same class, could have pushed this great son of Longfellow even on a dry track. Issac Murphy's masterly riding was a great factor in the vic-

Riley started twelve times last year and won six races, his last appearance being at Latonia, where he captured the Railway stakes from a field of six starters. The track was in miserable condition, and he carried 123 pounds, ten pounds more than ny horse in the race, and ran the mile in

The victory of Riley in the Derby was popular one, and was received gracefully even by those who had pinned their faith to other horses.

How utterly different was the result of the Brooklyn Handicap. It was a veritable surprise party, and over 15,000 people left the track disgruntled and impoverished. That Castaway II, the despised, the neglected outsider, a selling plater, should de-feat such flyers, as Sir Dixon, Badge, Los Angeles, and thereby usurp the title of king of the turf, was too much for the talent to bear. It will long be remembered as the most disappointing surprise the race course of this country has ever known.

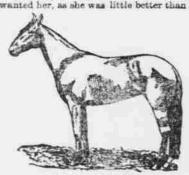

The time, 2:10, was very good considering the condition of the track, and it is doubtful if there is another horse in the country who could equal the performance under similar circumstances. And this was the despised outsider!

CASTAWAY IL. Castaway II was foaled April 23, 1886, the property of Rufus Lisle, on his place one mile from Lexington, Ky. He first ran for the Dixiana stakes at the Lexington spring meeting, May 7, 1888, but was unplaced, and he ran in all twenty-seven times that year, under the colors of the Lexing-ran property of $500 at the Lexible of the property of $500 at the lexible of the property of $500 at the lexible of the Jacobson stable, winning a purse of $500 at four and a half furlongs at Latonia, on June 2. He next won a purse of $400 at Washington park, Chicago, at five furlongs, late in the same month. He did not win again until the Louisville autumn meeting, where he won at half a mile, which he followed up by winning a five furlong dash at Lexington, and again at the same distance at Nashville. As a 3-year old in 1889 Castaway II began by winning the Pickwick stakes at New Orleans for the Beverwyck stables, distance seven furlongs, carrying 115 nounds, easily by half a length n 1:30%. He also won the Cottrell stakes, at a mile, at the same meeting, carrying 118 pounds, in 1:47%. He subsequently ran in thirty-eight other races, of which he

To Arms Then, Ye People of all Classes!

Every moment the popular store will be illuminated by a red but stream of delighted patrons. Every hour will witness an expansion of trade that will swell like the ocean billows. Every day there will be reatless ripples of will swell like the ocean billows. Every day there will be reatless ripples of excitement in every department.

There is blood in our eye and blood in our neck, and we will knock the tar, pitch and turpentine out of all competition. We are determined to make business if we don't make a cent.

We have placed our guns in a commanding position. The booming of cannon and the flying of shot and shell have knocked profits into "innocuous desnetude." No rage offerd at this sale, no half-worn plunder, no killing piles of cheap Jack styles at any price, but clean new goods to select from. Don't miss if. Take it in!
